Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) sponsored advertisement in 4/21/61 issue of "New York Times" which denounced U. S. support of anti-Castro invasion forces. During anniversary banquet of FPCC, held 4/28/61 at Brass Rail Restaurant in New York City (attended by some 500 persons), it was announced that this advertisement had been coauthored by Julian Mayfield and Warren Miller. At request of Bureau, New York Office has now submitted summaries of available public source subversive data concerning Miller and Mayfield.

Regarding Miller, he has written a number of articles in the publication "Masses and Mainstream" (cited in the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," issued by the House Committee on Un-American Activities 1/2/57 as successor to "New Masses," a communist magazine). Specifically, articles, book reviews, or short stories by Miller appeared in the December, 1948, issue of "Masses and Mainstream," each of the 12 monthly issues of this publication in 1949, and in the February, 1950; March, 1950; August, 1952; December, 1952; and June, 1953, issues. According to advertisement in "Daily Worker" issue of 2/6/49, Miller, described as film critic for "Masses and Mainstream," was listed as speaker at a forum to be sponsored by Youth Cultural Section of Communist Party on evening of 2/6/49. Article in 8/19/53 issue of "Daily Worker" reported that Miller had received an award for a short story which had appeared in "Masses and Mainstream" during the "International Cultural Competitions" held during the Fourth World Youth Festival held in Bucharest, Rumania.

Concerning Mayfield, article in 8/2/51 issue of "Daily Worker" identified him as Chairman of Subcommittee on Unemployment, Committee for the Negro and the Arts, New York City, (Committee for the Negro and the Arts has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450). "Daily Worker" issue of 7/1/53 carried advertisement which listed Mayfield as a staff leader on the Camp Unity Interracial Gala Program during July, 1953,

Re: FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE
97-4196

("Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," 1/2/53, cites Camp Unity of Wingdale, New York, as a "notorious Communist rendezvous"). The 2/11/53 issue of "Daily Worker" carried article reporting that Mayfield had appeared in a play under auspices of Civil Rights Congress (designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450). It is noted that Mayfield was one of original sponsors of FPCC listed in this group's advertisement in 4/6/60 issue of "New York Times."

SECURITY MATTER - C

Reur FD-122 dated 10-20-61 recommending that the Security Index card in captioned case be tabbed "Pro-Cuban."

The Bureau is of the opinion that the information developed to date regarding the subject's activities in Pro-Cuban organizations is insufficient to justify the tabbing of the Security Index card "Pro-Cuban." In this connection, it is noted that the only information developed concerning Mayfield's support of the Pro-Cuban regime has been his name being listed as one of the co-authors of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee advertisement in the 4-21-61 edition of the "New York Times."

If additional facts are developed that would justify the tabbing of the Security Index card in this case "Pro-Cuban," you should resubmit your recommendation.

NOTE: Subject is on the Security Index. Subject is alleged to have driven the card for Robert Franklin Williams when he fled from Monroe, North Carolina, on 8-27-61 after an incident involving a civil rights matter.

Travel Plans

The records of the Passport Division, United States Department of State, Washington, DC, reviewed on September 23, 1961, reflected that [redacted] was issued Passport Number [redacted] on September 13, 1961, at New York City. It was set out in these records that [redacted] planned to travel to Venezuela, approximately September 14, 1961 for a period of one month. The purpose of this trip was to visit [redacted]. [redacted] made a statement that she would depart via Pan American Airlines, and in case of accident Julian Mayfield [redacted] should be notified. [redacted] permanent address was reflected as [redacted]. [redacted] was issued Passport Number [redacted], on September 8, 1961.

The records of the Passport Division, United States Department of State, New York, New York, furnished by [redacted] to Special Agent [redacted] on September 22, 1961, reflected that Julian Hudson Mayfield, [redacted] set out above, was issued Passport Number B616480 on September 11, 1961. According to these records Mayfield planned to travel to Venezuela to visit with relatives, leaving New York City by air around October 1, 1961.

New York T-1, with whom there has been insufficient contact to judge reliability, advised on August 7, 1961, that he had learned that [redacted] and [redacted] Julian Mayfield, were being sent to Ghana, Africa, by the Rockefeller Foundation.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[redacted] of the Medical and Natural Sciences, Rockefeller Foundation, 111 West 50th Street, New York, New York, advised Special Agent [redacted] on September 29, 1961, that he interviewed [redacted] on May 9, 1961, on the subject of Ghana. He said that [redacted]

[redacted] He remarked that [redacted] during the Fall of 1960, or the early part of 1961, had contacted the Resident Commission in London, England, which was in charge of recruiting for the Ghana Government. [redacted] said that [redacted] was a very capable person and from that stand point would be the type of individual who could be of use in Ghana. At the time of his interview with Cordero, [redacted] explained to him that [redacted] [redacted] could be of use to her. [redacted] was unable to say whether [redacted] had actually been hired by the Government of Ghana, as he had ^{neither} seen nor heard from her since the time of the interview which was May, 1961.

New York T-2, who was in a position to furnish reliable information, advised on September 25, 1961, that [redacted] remarked that Julian Mayfield as of that time was not in New York City, and had departed from the city approximately two weeks prior to that date. [redacted] stated that they were flying to Africa, but indicated that she would not be leaving for at least three weeks. According to this informant, [redacted] later stated that she had postponed the trip to December, until [redacted] [redacted] remarked that [redacted] had gone to Venezuela to retire, and that she might decide to pack and go to Venezuela with [redacted].

Background

[redacted], a white female, resides at [redacted] New York, and she is employed as [redacted] under the name of [redacted] at [redacted] [redacted] New York, New York, and also at [redacted] Bronx, New York. She is [redacted].

Julian Hudson Mayfield, as of August 18, 1961, resided at 29-43 Gillmore Street, East Elmhurst, Queens, New York, with [redacted] and was a self-employed author who worked from his residence. As of September, 1961, Mayfield's whereabouts was unknown. Mayfield was last known to be in the company of Robert F. Williams, a fugitive, who fled from Monroe, North Carolina, on August 27, 1961, in Mayfield's automobile.

Robert F. Williams is being sought for unlawful flight for kidnapping in connection with a racial demonstration which took place at Monroe, North Carolina, on August 27, 1961. In 1948, Williams was diagnosed as a schizophrenic, and was known to be in possession of firearms and considered extremely dangerous.

New York T-2 advised on September 29, 1961, that information was received on that date, that Robert Williams was then in Cuba.

Subversive Information

New York T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 28, 1950, that at a meeting of Section 3 of the Youth Group of The San Juan Partido Comunista Puertorriqueno (Puerto Rican Communist Party) (PCP), on June 27,

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Re: [redacted]

1950, [redacted] was seen in attendance. This source advised on July 4, 1958, that the PCP was a Communist Party in it's own right, and was not a section or district organization of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP,USA), although it was based on the same Marxist-Leninist principles of the CP,USA. New York T-3 previously mentioned, advised on February 2, 1953, that [redacted], New York, New York, was considered to be an important member of the CP in New York in youth circles.

New York T-3, previously mentioned, advised on an unknown date, that during March, 1949, [redacted] and [redacted] visited the home of Cesar Andreu in order to discuss the problems of independence for Puerto Rico. This informant stated that according to statements later made by Andreu, at CP Headquarters, [redacted] and [redacted], told him they were Communists, and as far as concerns a possible war between the United States and Soviet Russia, that they would be on the side of Soviet Russia in the event of such a conflict. The source further stated that [redacted] and [redacted] stated that their sympathies would, nevertheless, not place the problem of independence for Puerto Rico in a position secondary to the international aspects of Communism. This same source stated that an extensive discussion occurred between [redacted] and Andreu, mentioned above, at Andreu's home, March 8, 1949, regarding [redacted] attitude, at which time Andreu, in an angered state, called [redacted] and [redacted] false Marxists, in placing the independence problem ahead of Marxist concepts in the event of war between the United States and Russia.

New York T-3 advised on an unknown date, prior to August, 1955, that Cesar Andreu, mentioned above, had been President of the PCP since 1948.

New York T-4, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on July 11, 1957, that two individuals from the United States had been visiting in Puerto Rico, and that Eugenio Cuebas Arbona had told him that these two individuals had been visiting in the home of [redacted], whom the source on July 18, 1957, believed to be [redacted].

New York T-3, previously mentioned, advised on August 5, 1957, that Eugenio Cuebas Arbona was a former PCP Youth Secretary on the Central Committee of the PCP, who was a resident delegate of the PCP in New York City, handling liason with the CP, USA, from March 17, 1953, until he was arrested on October 20, 1954, for violation of the Smith Act of 1940. Cuebas was one of the 11 PCP's Smith Act defendants indicted on October 27, 1954 at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

New York T-4, previously mentioned, advised on July 18, 1957, that on July 14, 1957, an unnamed individual identified to him only as a student from Peru, went to the residence of Ramon Mirabel. This source stated that on July 15, 1957, Ramon Mirabel advised that this individual was a friend of [redacted], whom he, Mirabel, had met at the home of [redacted] and who had come to see Mirabel because of his interest in the political situation in Cuba. According to the source, Mirabel gave this Peruvian student some bulletins regarding the political situation in Cuba.

New York T-3 advised on August 5, 1957, that Ramon Mirabel Carrion was a member of the PCP Central Committee and Secretary General of the PCP since May 15, 1954.

Julian Hudson Mayfield

Partido Comunista Puertorriqueno (PCP) (Communist Party of Puerto Rico)

New York T-4, previously mentioned, advised on September 20, 1955, that he received information that three leaders of the PCP had visited in Naranjito, Puerto Rico, recently, and had talked to [redacted]. During the discussion with [redacted], Mayfield's name was brought out as a potential recruit for a new PCP club in Naranjito, Puerto Rico, which was to be formed in the near future.

Camp Unity

The "Daily Worker" edition of July 1, 1953, on page 8, contained an advertisement to announce that Julian Mayfield was a staff writer on the Camp Unity Interracial Gala Program featuring a musical review from July 3 to July 5, 1953.

The "Daily Worker" is a former East Coast daily Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

New York T-7, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on August 12, 1953, made available information which reflected that Julian Mayfield appeared in an American Folk Opera "Down In The Valley", which was presented at Camp Unity.

New York T-9, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 28, 1953, that Julian Mayfield participated in a narrative musical entitled "Spalom", which was presented at Camp Unity.

A characterization of Camp Unity will be found in the Appendix Section under the heading "Wingdale Lodge".

Civil Rights Congress (CRC)

The "Daily Worker" edition of February 11, 1953, on page 7, column 1, contained an article which reflected that Julian Mayfield appeared in a play under the auspices of the CRC.

The CRC has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Committee for the Negro in the Arts (CNA)

The "Daily Worker" edition of August 2, 1951, on page 7, column 3, contained an article which identified Julian Mayfield as chairman of the Sub-Committee on Unemployment, Committee for the Negro in the Arts, 261 West 125th Street, New York, New York.

The "Daily Worker" edition of November 9, 1951, on page 7, columns 2 and 3, contained an article under the heading, "Parley on Equal Rights Will Hear Negro Actor", which in part related to the subject as follows: "Julian Mayfield, Negro Actor, now appearing in the Committee for the Negro in the Arts Production 'A Medal For Willie', will speak at the Conference on Equal Rights for Negroes in the Arts, Sciences and Professions at the Pythian, 135 West 70th Street, on Saturday. The conference is being called by the New York Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions."

The CNA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

New York T-10, whose reliability is not possible to determine due to insufficient contact, advised on April 2, 1954 that one, Julian Mayfield, was associated with and acted in plays of the CNA.

The New York Council on the Arts, Sciences and Professions is subsequently mentioned.

"Martinsville Seven"

The "Daily Worker" edition of February 2, 1951, on page 8, column 4, contained an article which states that Julian Mayfield was one of a group of actors who collected money to send representatives to Washington, DC, to mourn four members of the "Martinsville Seven", who had been executed in Virginia.

The "Martinsville Seven" were seven Negro men, who were convicted of the crime of rape in Martinsville, Virginia, and who were sentenced to death and executed in February, 1951.

New York T-9 and New York T-11, both of whom have furnished reliable information in the past, advised in 1951, that the Communist Party, the CRC, and the Communist Press gave considerable publicity to this case in their efforts to free the "Martinsville Seven".

New York Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions (NYCASP)

New York T-12, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 30, 1952, that an address by Julian Mayfield, Actor, was made and sent out by the NYCASP.

New York T-6, previously mentioned, advised in May, 1953, that the NYCASP, is a chapter of the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions ((NCASP)).

The January, 1955, volume I, number 4 issue of "The Contemporary Reader", as published by the Contemporary Reader, Incorporated, 35 West 64th Street, New York, New York, under the auspices of The Writing and Publishing Division of the NYCASP, on the last three pages of the issue contained a list of contributors to the first four issues of this publication. The list contained the name of the contributor, the name of the literary attribution and the location of the contribution in its issues of volume I of "The Contemporary Reader". On this list appeared the following information: "Mayfield, Julian, 417 (one act play) issue four, page 105".

Appeal For Willie McGee

New York T-13, who is in a position to furnish ^{reliable} information concerning Julian Mayfield, advised on May 6, 1951, that Julian Mayfield signed an appeal urging individuals of the theatre to meet on March 5, 1951, to determine how they could best effect the freedom of Willie McGee.

Willie McGee, a Negro male of Laurel, Mississippi, was convicted for the crime of rape and was later executed.

New York T-14, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in 1951, that various CP front organizations were active in the attempt to appeal and prevent Willie McGee's conviction.

Fair Play For Cuba Committee

The "New York Times" newspaper, Late City Edition, April 6, 1960, contains an advertisement "What is Really Happening In Cuba?" by the Fair Play For Cuba Committee, Box T24, New York, New York, which contradicts numerous statements made in the United States newspapers regarding Castro. This advertisement, which defends Fidel Castro, Prime Minister of Cuba, and the Cuban Revolutionists, reflects a list of sponsors including Julian Mayfield.

A characterization of the Fair Play For Cuba Committee appears in the Appendix Section of this memorandum.

Afro-American Alliance For Action

On July 10, 1961, New York T-15, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that an unknown Negro organization planned to hold a meeting that night at 310 Lenox Avenue, New York City. According to the informant, one of the speakers at this meeting was to be Julian Mayfield. There was to be a collection taken up at this meeting and the money would be designated to buy weapons for the Militant Anti-Segregationist in the South.

On July 11, 1961, New York T-15 advised that the meeting held on the evening of July 10, 1961, was under the name of Afro-American Alliance For Action. The source indicated that this name was utilized for the purpose of this meeting, as he had never heard of it before and observed several people there, whom he believed connected with the On Guard Committee for Freedom Group.

This source advised that one of the other speakers discussed the problems Robert Williams was having in Monroe, North Carolina, in attempting to integrate a municipal swimming pool in Monroe, as well as William's trouble with the Ku Klux Klan (KKK).

The KKK has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On July 11, 1961, New York T-16, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Julian Mayfield, a Negro writer, was one of the principal speakers at the above mentioned meeting. According to this source, Mayfield indicated that he had stayed with Williams in Monroe, North Carolina, and that because of the attitude of the KKK towards Williams, it was necessary to place armed guards around the latter's home during the night. Mayfield also told about incidents surrounding Williams attempt to organize a "wade in" of Negroes at the municipal swimming pool in Monroe, and how authorities closed the pool in anticipation of this move, and how Williams car was purposely side-swiped on the day Williams attempted to drive to the pool to investigate the closing.

A characterization of the On Guard Committee for Freedom appears in the Appendix Section of this memorandum.

Miscellaneous Information

The "Daily Worker" edition of February 9, 1953, page 6, column 2, under the heading "What's On" contained information to the effect that Julian Mayfield was to direct the play, "The Big Deal" or "Fund Raising". The term "Fund Raising" was not further identified or described.

Records of the Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, New York, New York, checked during June, 1954, contained the information that the name and address of Julian Mayfield, 69 West 99th Street, New York, New York, appeared as a witness on a Peoples Rights Party Nominating Petition for George Blake Charney, candidate for District Attorney, New York County in 1953.

During his campaign for election as District Attorney of New York County in the November 3, 1953, New York Election, George Blake Charney publically stated on radio and television that he was trade union secretary of the New York State CP, and was recently convicted for violation of the Smith Act of 1940. Charney stated he was the only candidate of the Peoples Rights Party during the election.

New York T-17, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 29, 1957, that GEORGE BLAKE CHARNEY was the Executive Secretary of the New York State CP as of that date.

The "Daily Worker" edition of May 29, 1953 on page 7, column 1, contained an article which stated that Julian Mayfield was a speaker at a rally called in the defense of V. J. Jerome.

Victor Jeremy Jerome was one of the CP leaders convicted in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on January 21, 1953, for violation of the Smith Act of 1940. He was subsequently incarcerated in Federal Penitentiary, Lewisburg, Pennsylvania. He was released from prison on May 17, 1957, on conditional release, to June 28, 1957, at which time, the sentence for violation of the Smith Act of 1940, was completed.

New York T-6, previously mentioned, advised on May 28, 1958, that Victor Jeremy Jerome had stated he would be asked to serve on a sub-committee of the CP National Committee.

New York T-18, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on June 16, 1958, furnished information which reflected that Comrade V.J. Jerome was made Secretary of the sub-committee to work with the National Commission for Jewish Work, CP, USA.

Records of the Bureau of Special Services, previously mentioned, also contained a record that Julian Mayfield participated in a rally "A Salute to Paul Robeson", held at the Renaissance Casino, 138th Street and 7th Avenue, New York, New York, on May 27, 1954.

MOVIMIENTO PRO INDEPENDENCIA DE PUERTO RICO
(Puerto Rican Independence Movement) (MPIPR)

A confidential source advised on January 31, 1959, that the MPIPR was formed at a meeting of former leaders of the PARTIDO INDEPENDENTISTA PUERTORRIQUENO (Independence Party of Puerto Rico) (PIP), a legally constituted political party, in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, on January 11, 1959, as a result of discussions by various PIP members who were dissatisfied with the PIP and who desired to form a more active organization. The announced purpose of the MPIPR was to work for the complete independence of Puerto Rico through propaganda and other peaceful means. The source advised that no information had come to his attention indicating that the MPIPR advocated the use of violence as a means of obtaining independence for Puerto Rico.

According to public statements, the MPIPR is a non-partisan organization which will accept into membership any individual who believes in independence for Puerto Rico, regardless of the group or party with which he is affiliated, and will accept as an affiliate any pro-independence organization which agrees to abide by the MPIPR Declaration of Principles.

The MPIPR General Secretariat and the MPIPR Directive Mission are composed of leaders of the independence movement in Puerto Rico and include leaders of other independence-seeking organizations, including the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico (NPPR).

The NPPR has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (FPCC)

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contains a full page advertisement captioned, "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the FPCC. This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City, listed various sponsors of the Committee and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press on Cuban affairs.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself as one of the organizers of the FPCC. Also, Dr. SANTOS-BUCH identified ROBERT TABER as a co-organizer of the FPCC and said TABER drafted the aforementioned FPCC advertisement. Dr. SANTOS-BUCH further testified that he and TABER obtained $3,500 from the Cuban Government through the son of Cuba's Foreign Minister, which funds, along with about $1,100 collected from supporters of the FPCC, paid for the cost of aforementioned advertisement in "The New York Times."

On October 3, 1960, a source advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York had become active in the FPCC, and that SWP members, in a recent FPCC election, had been able to remove several Communist Party members who were on the Executive Board of the FPCC and gain control of the organization. This source asserted that the SWP members believed that they had achieved a great influence in the course of the Cuban revolution through their control of the FPCC.

On February 10, 1961, a second source advised that PHIL BART, National Organizational Secretary and member of the National Committee, CP, USA, had reportedly stated recently that the FPCC had been captured by the Trotskyites, but that the CP had not given up in the FPCC.

The SWP and the CP, USA, have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

ON GUARD COMMITTEE FOR FREEDOM (OGCFF)

A confidential source advised on February 15, 1961, that the "On Guard Committee for Freedom" (OGCFF) was formed on February 14, 1961, in the Harlem section of New York City. Its purpose was to avenge the death of PATRICE LUMUMBA and the fathers and mothers of slaves killed in the past.

"The New York Times", issue of March 1, 1961, on page twenty-five, commented that CALVIN L. HICKS, a newspaper writer, who is editor of a six-page newspaper, is associated with the OGCFF. The tabloid edited by him has favored the LUMUMBA and CASTRO regimes and has called on President KENNEDY to aid "Afro-American" families in Tennessee while asserting the U.S. was subsidizing Cubans in Florida.

A second confidential source on February 29, 1956, furnished information that [REDACTED] was at that time a member of a Communist Party cell in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Communist Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The May, 1961 edition of "On Guard," official organ of the OGCFF, on page two, stated that the purpose of the OGCFF was "to act as an educational and action organization. To inspire our people to united mass action on issues affecting their rights and opportunities. To expose those agents and agencies representative of government who violate those principles and documents upon which this country was founded." The above editorial contained in part, "In order to implement the above-mentioned principles, OGCFF shall advocate and make use of the picket line, the boycott, the petition forums and mass circulation of 'On Guard', our monthly newspaper."

Enclosed herewith is a copy of New York letter dated 11/21/61 together with a copy of its enclosure concerning the subjects. Also enclosed is a copy of New York letterhead memorandum dated 10/18/61 concerning them.

Information has been received that the Mayfields have arrived in Ghana and may take up citizenship in that country. Note the lead on page two of referenced letter. Also determine if any information came to the attention of your sources while they were in England.

You may advise your sources that both subjects have been involved in communist and pro-Castro activities. For your confidential information both subjects are included in the Security Index and New York is office of origin.

Monroe Defense Committee

NY T-4 advised on October 9, 1961, that a meeting of the Monroe Defense Committee was held at the Hotel Diplomat, 108 West 43rd Street, New York City, on October 5, 1961. One of the speakers, according to the informant, was [redacted]

[redacted] who could not attend the meeting. [redacted] read the majority of a statement from the subject to the assembled group. The subject's statement claimed that the real leaders of the white trouble makers were local and state officials, in addition to Federal officials. The subject had a great deal of difficulty in getting stories out of Monroe through the press during the disturbance in late August. The subject in his statement said that he had contacted the editor of a publication to get a story off the news wires from the Associated Press, but the Associated Press would not put it over the wires. The only way that the Associated Press would send it, would be by United States Mail. The subject's statement further explained that all newspaper wires had put an iron curtain around Monroe and Charlotte during the disturbances.

NY T-5 advised on November 15, 1961, that the Monroe Defense Committee was allegedly supported chiefly by the CP. The subject was mentioned as being one of the leaders of the Monroe Defense Committee.

Other Information Regarding Monroe Incident

NY T-6 advised on October 30, 1961, that at a meeting of the Harlem Regional CP Committee held on October 25, 1961, one of the individuals present at the meeting stated that it was her understanding that the subject was in hiding from the law because of his activities with [redacted]. She also said that she had heard that the subject was more responsible than [redacted] for what had happened.
